++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely dry but often cloudy. Turning very unsettled midweek.

This Evening and Tonight:
A largely dry evening and night with some clear interludes and the odd spot of light rain under the thickest clouds. Fog patches likely to develop in the north and frosts in the south where cloud breaks. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cloudier day with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle. Winds will strengthen overnight as a band of heavy rain moves across the country. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Frequent heavy downpours Wednesday, with strong winds developing. Occasionally heavy blustery showers on Thursday and Friday. Strong winds throughout with a risk of gales, perhaps severe near coasts.
